TIME PERIODS FOR FILING A REPLY TO THIS NOTICE:

1. Applicant is given no new time period if the non-compliant amendment is an after-final amendment or an amendment filed after allowance. If applicant wishes to resubmit the non-compliant after-final amendment with corrections, the entire corrected amendment must be resubmitted.
2. Applicant is given one month, or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer, from the mail date of this notice to supply the correction, if the non-compliant amendment is one of the following: a preliminary amendment, a non-final amendment (including a submission for a request for continued examination (RCE) under 37 CFR 1.114), a supplemental amendment filed within a suspension period under 37 CFR 1.103(a) or (c), and an amendment filed in response to a Quayle action. Continuation of 4(e) Other: The previous amendment, filed on 05/25/2007, recites the phrases, "comprises the relative structural coordinates" in claim 41 (see lines 2-3), and "LE" following the word "P-selectin" in claim 56 (see line 6). However, the amendment filed on 12/14/2007 does not recite these phrases nor indicate that these phrases are being deleted by the use of strikethrough. Further, in claim 66, line 5 on pg. 9, the phrase, "coordinates of the active site of P-selectin LE" indicates that the word "of" appeared twice in the previous amendment. However, claim 66 of the previous amendment only recited the word "of" once. As such, Applicants' intent is unclear with respect to what the claim language is in claims 41, 56 and 66. Given the confusion brought about by Applicants' amendment, it is confusing and unclear as to what Applicants' intent is. It is noted by the Examiner that it is critically important for Applicants to set the record straight so that there is no hint of confusion about what Applicants' intent is, especially with respect to the scope and limitation of the claimed invention during future examinations of the claims on the merits. Applicants are directed to 37 CFR § 1.121 (c) (2) for guidance on how to make proper claim amendment. The changes in any amended claim must be shown by underlining (for added matter) or strikethrough (for deleted matter). For deletions of five characters or fewer, double brackets may be used. For strikethrough that cannot be easily perceived, double brackets must be used. As an alternative to using double brackets, extra portions of text may be included before and after text being deleted, all in strikethrough, followed by including and underlining the extra text with the desired change.
